Lessons are conducted by self-employed peripatetic teachers.

There will be a charge for hired instruments of £60 per term. The charge for lessons is made termly in advance. All instrumental and singing lessons will be invoiced directly by the music teacher.

- Instrument insurance is the responsibility of the parents, for hired and own instrument.
- Girls must have instruments to practise on at home. In the case of pianos, a large keyboard would suffice initially.

All girls taking lessons on an orchestral instrument are encouraged to play in one of the Ensembles at school when they reach an appropriate standard.

One half term's notice in writing to cease lessons must be given, to both the teacher and Head of Department.
